

GOVERNOR ODELL TAKES ACTION TO PREVENT FRAUD ON ELECTION DAY

WAR TO DRIVE A WOMAN FROM IROQUOIS HOTEL.

Mrs. Annie S. Foster, lessee and manager of the fashionable Iroquois apartment-house and hotel, No. 19 West Forty-fourth street, when she wanted to get rid of an undesired tenant, shut off the hot and cold water and disconnected the electric light and electric bell service, according to Mrs. Elizabeth Padgett, who says she has sat in darkness for two nights and performed her toilet at a neighbor's since Wednesday.

Mrs. Padgett was an anxious auditor when A. H. Kaffenburgh, of Howe & Hummel, asked Judge Clarke, in the Supreme Court today for a temporary injunction restraining Mrs. Foster from interfering with her peaceful enjoyment of her apartments, her electric lights and all the water she needs pending the trial of a suit over the possession of the apartment.

Mr. Kaffenburgh told the Court that Mrs. Padgett, after living in the Iroquois since Oct. 9, 1900, took a year's lease of the apartment Aug. 1 at an annual rental of $50, but that on Light, Heat and Power, as Well as Water, Cut Off, Leaving Dainty Mrs. Padgett Without Service, Shivering in Darkness.

Wednesday a servant sent up by Mrs. Foster told her she must make certain repairs to the water pipes. Gaining entrance to her apartment by this subterfuge, the servant cut off the water, both hot and cold. The steam no longer gurgled in the radiators, and the mistress was obliged to put on her wraps to keep warm. Then, when the shades of night came down and the fair but dainty tenant turned on the electric switch, no responsive light flashed in the incandescent bulbs.

But it was not until she pressed the button that should have summoned the hirelings from below by the twinkling of an electric bell, but did not, that the blue-eyed, brown-haired, little tenant realized that her wires were cut and that the failure of the water to run and the steam to gurgle was due to the intentional act of her landlady.

Then she visited her lawyer with vengeance in her heart and began a legal fight to retain her apartments under the lease, Mrs. Foster having given no reasons for her desire to oust her.

David A. L'Esperance, Jr., appeared for Mrs. Foster. He got an adjournment of the case until next Wednesday, when it is expected the fur will fly in a most sensational trial. Meantime Mrs. Foster must have the water, steam and electric current turned on until the suit is determined. Justice Clarke so ordered.

MISS STONE WRITES AGAIN

A Letter Indicates that the Captive Missionary Is Unharmed.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 1.—The negotiations with the captors of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, appear to be going on so successfully that her release seems now to be only a matter of days.

So far from there being any confirmation of the rumors of her death, circulating in the Bulgarian border districts, it is said here that another letter, written two days ago, has been received from her.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Some surprise is expressed here at the extent to which the question of indemnity in Miss Stone's case is being discussed in the European papers. The United States government so far has directed its efforts solely to the procurement of Miss Stone's release and there is good reason for the statement that all other questions connected with the case, including that of a possible claim for indemnity, have been regarded as secondary and laid aside for future discussion.

This is almost necessarily the case, owing to the fact that in its present light, the State Department cannot place the responsibility for Miss Stone's capture and detention, so further evidence must be had on that point.

A SACKVILLE IN QUEER LAWSUIT.

HEIRS OF SPANISH DANCER WANT A NOBLE FOR FATHER.

Disclaimer Made for English Peer-Marriage Entry Shows Changes.

MADRID Nov. 1.—The name of "Sackville" is figuring in strange investigations which are occupying the attention of the courts here. A local lawyer has applied to the courts to recognize the legitimacy of a client, who claims to be the son of a certain "Lord Sackville, Secretary of Legation at Madrid about the year 1852."

The claimant alleges that the diplomat married a well known Spanish dancer, Pepita Duran, and had three daughters and a son by the marriage. But the marriage register was subsequently tampered with and the name of Pepita Duran's dancing-master, Antonio de la Oliva, was substituted for the original entry.

The examining Magistrate appointed experts to examine the register, and the expert have confirmed the statement that the original name of the husband, whatever it was, had been scratched out and that the name of Oliva had been substituted.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—In connection with the Madrid despatch referring to "Lord Sackville" it is pointed out that the "Sackville" and "Sackville" are the names of the former Minister of Great Britain at Madrid, although he was in the diplomatic service prior to 1852, was not attached to the British Legation at Madrid until eleven years after that date. Moreover, he did not succeed to the title until 1858.

SULTAN READY TO FIGHT FRANCE.

Turkish Troops Mobilized and the Dardanelles Mined to Stop War Fleet.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The Sultan has not taken fright at the prospect of facing the French warships now nearing Turkey to force the payment of claims made by France.

A Constantinople despatch says that the Sultan has resolved to defy the French Government and has ordered the defense of Salonica, Smyrna and Mitlene.

Mines have been placed in the Dardanelles and preparatory orders issued for the mobilization of two army corps.

In addition, anti-foreign fanaticism is rampant owing to the action of the Government in inciting the people against all strangers.

PARIS, Nov. 1.—The despatch from Toulon, announcing the return of Admiral Caillaud's division of the French Mediterranean squadron to that port, proves to be incorrect. The officials of the Foreign Office to-day informed the Associated Press that the Admiral has not returned and that the facts set forth yesterday are correct.

The Admiral is now on his way to Turkish waters and if his demand for the payment of French claims is not complied with, he will seize the Turkish customs at the port nearest him. He has received no new orders.

The principal claim France has to collect is the $5,000,000 bill of the French company that built quays in Constantinople, under a concession which permitted it to collect wharfage but which the Turkish government, in addition, anti-foreign fanaticism is rampant owing to the action of the Government in inciting the people against all strangers.

There are other claims of French citizens who have suffered damages to person or property in various parts of the Ottoman empire through violence or fraud, claims which have been dragging along for years notwithstanding the Turkish government has promised to pay them.

ANOTHER PLAGUE CASE IN GLASGOW.

Large numbers of people who have been in contact with plague cases or suspects have been isolated. The foreign consuls to-day are refusing to grant clean bills of health.

Four suspected cases of the plague were removed from the Central Station Hotel, and one died Saturday. The hotel has been closed, all the guests having been warned to leave by noon to-day. All the cases under suspicion are servants of the hotel.

MC CULLAGH MAKES POLICEMEN SHAKE.

THOSE REGISTERED FROM STATIONS WARNED NOT TO VOTE.

Some Talk of Making a Test Case and Superintendent Says He Is Willing.

The sixty-nine policemen and the sixty firemen who were subpoenaed by the Superintendent McCullagh yesterday, were at his office this morning and gave various excuses for registering from stations and firehouses.

Superintendent McCullagh informed them that if they refused to vote from stations and firehouses their votes would be challenged. Mr. McCullagh also said that this ruling might be applied to some other institutions.

The policemen who have registered are a minority. Some of them announced their intention to take a chance and vote, saying that they had registered honestly. Others were of the opinion that it would be best to carry the matter to the courts on a test case, and obtain a ruling on the subject.

Superintendent McCullagh says that he has no feeling in the matter, and only wishes to carry out the law as he interprets it. He would be glad to have a test case settled in the courts.

STILL FAVOR LOW IN THE BETTING.

TEN TO NINE ON FUSION NOMINEE IN WAGERS TO-DAY.

Nothing Seen of the $50,000 Tammany Pool, but $25,000 Low Money Awaits Takers.

Low was still the favorite in the election betting to-day in the Wall street section.

The largest wager reported was that of F. G. Lawrence, who placed $2,000 on Low against $1,500 on Shepard by F. Johnson.

R. W. Clifford made these bets, taking the Shepard end in every instance. Two hundred dollars eachway $250, with J. L. McCormick; $200 against $250, with A. Hammersough; $100 against $125, with H. I. Ditman.

Offers of 4 against 5 1-2 on Shepard were taken in small amounts. A Saratoga offered $700 against $1,000 on Shepard, but found no takers. J. J. Judge offered smaller amounts at the same odds.

Nothing was seen of the $50,000 Tammany pool, talk of which was heard in Wall street yesterday.

On the Stock Exchange there is something like $35,000 of Low money at 11 to 10 and 10 to 9, but Tammany bettors appear to be wanting greater odds.

LOVERS DIE TOGETHER.

Left Letter Saying Their Love Affairs Had Been Interfered With.

READING, Pa., Nov. 1.—Walter Snyder, 25, and Rebecca Snyder, 22, were found dead on Mount Penn to-day. Each had been shot through the head. A pistol was lying by Snyder's side, and it is supposed he killed the girl and then committed suicide.

The couple left a letter in which they said that their love affairs had been interfered with, and that they decided to die together. Snyder had been keeping company with the girl for some time. He was twenty years old and she a year older.

FAKE "CITS" UNION IN COURT AGAIN.

JUDGE BISCHOFF ASKED TO PREVENT POLITICAL DODGE.

Names of Two Republicans Used as Nominees Without Their Consent.

David Blustein and Max Franklin, two Republican supporters of Charles Adler for the Assembly, awoke yesterday to find that Lazarus Shapiro and Phil Benjamin, of the committee appointed by Martin Engel's fake Citizens' Union to fill vacancies in the ticket, had named them for members of the Assembly and Alderman in the Eighth District, Charles Solomon and Anthony Smith having declined. They appeared to Justice Bischoff in Supreme Court this afternoon.

In their behalf Edward B. Whitney, representing the real Citizens' Union, and Julius M. Mayer, told the Court that these men had been nominated without their consent for the purpose of injuring Candidate Charles Adler.

That having been forbidden the use of the name and emblem of the Citizens' Union had taken the name of Citizens' League, and would require a new column on the official ballot, which would have only these two names. He asked that the names be stricken off the ballot.

Decision was reserved.

PLANNED MURDER TO ROB.

Laborer Charged with Designs on Men Who Carried Money.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Nov. 1.—John Christopolis, a Greek laborer, twenty-two years old, is held at Police Headquarters on the charge of conspiring to murder and rob. The intended victims are alleged to be B. D. Pierce, Sr., and C. F. A. Bliz, officers of the B. D. Pierce, Jr. Co., which is building a dam for the Bridgeport Hydraulic Company at Beaver Brook.

It is alleged that Christopolis intended to secure $11,000 which the two officers of the company carry weekly to the dam for paying off the men.

Notifies Van Wyck and Murphy that Police Must Be Used to Aid Law—Thousands of Illegal Voters Are on Poll Books.

Charges of wholesale frauds in registration, put forth by the Republicans, have aroused Gov. Odell to action.

To-day he notified Mayor Van Wyck and Police Commissioner Murphy that an honest election must be held.

They were warned that the police force of the greater city must be utilized next Tuesday to aid in preventing illegal voting.

The Governor's action was based on the letter of Supt. of Elections McCullagh that thousands of illegal names were on the registration books.

Extreme measures are to be taken to prevent their being voted Tuesday.

An army of McCullagh deputies will watch the polls, and arrests without warrants will be made whenever suspects attempt to vote.

Odell's Letter.

Gov. Odell's letter is as follows: "STATE OF NEW YORK, "EXECUTIVE CHAMBER, "ALBANY, Oct. 31, 1901.

"Hon. John McCall, Superintendent of Elections, New York City.

"Dear Sir: I desire to advise you that I have this day requested, through the Mayor of the city of New York and Police Commissioner Murphy, that the support and assistance of the Police Department of the city of New York be extended to you in the discharge of your duties as Superintendent of Elections. I shall expect from you cordial co-operation, and that the enforcement of the law shall be to the full extent, without fear or favor.

"I desire also that you shall notify me immediately of any violation of any of the provisions of the laws so that steps may be taken for their proper enforcement.

"I shall hold you personally responsible for the enforcement of the laws, having for their object a just and honest election. Very truly yours, "B. B. ODELL, JR."

Number Illegally Registered.

The letter of Supt. McCullagh to Commissioner Murphy in part says: "In view of the near approach of the general election, to be held on Nov. 5, 1901, I deem it wise and necessary to inform you of certain facts which have come to my official knowledge in connection therewith.

"The investigation of the registration of voters by Deputy State Superintendent of Elections demonstrates conclusively that a vast number of names are illegally registered as voters in the city of New York.

On each of the four days of registration, to wit: Oct. 11, 12, 13 and 14, many gangs of repeaters were at work in various sections of the city enrolling fictitious names as voters. Numerous gangs of repeaters, who started to operate in the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth, Twenty-first and Twenty-fourth Assembly Districts in New York County, and also in Kings, Queens and Richmond Counties, were dispersed by the deputies, and a number of important arrests were made, notably that of Ignatius Dugan, an ex-keeper of the City Prison, who for years has been recognized as leader of repeaters, and who was identified with the gigantic election frauds in Queens Island in years past. Dugan confined his operations principally to the Third Assembly District during the first three days of registration.

"On the third day of registry he succeeded in eluding my deputies until near the close of registration, when he was placed under arrest, but not until his gang had registered fifteen times under fictitious names in one election district, one member of the gang registering three times within a period of five minutes, which indicates the immense number of fraudulent registrations possible in this city.

"The representatives of the Attorney-General, who is the counsel for this department and who has charge of the prosecution of all election cases, will be assigned to each City Magistrate's Court on the day of election, fortified with affidavits in the cases of persons to be arrested.

"I have in my possession a large number of unexecuted warrants, which will be executed by the deputies on the day of election if the persons for whom they have been issued appear to vote, and I desire to call your attention to the fact that I shall demand from you, after the election, a record of the disposition of the warrants issued to the members of the police force by the City Magistrates for the arrest of persons charged by them with violation of the Election law, and if any persons for whom such warrants have been issued are allowed to vote before the same are executed, I shall submit to the office of the officers responsible for the delay in executing such warrants and examine them under oath as to the reasons therefor, and, if the facts warrant, I shall charge them with aiding and abetting illegal voting."

Murphy Promises. Commissioner Murphy said this afternoon that he had received Gov. Odell's letter.

"I find," he said, "that all the requisites contained in it had been already complied with by myself before the letter was received, so that there is really nothing to be done about it. I am glad that I shall see to it, in accordance with their duty of office, that the police do their duty in this connection."

"I have not yet received the letter which Mr. McCullagh has sent to me not talk about it. But I am sure the law to carry out the spirit of the law in all election matters."

EDWARD S. STOKES IS WORSE AGAIN.

DOCTOR ORDERS THAT A CLOSE WATCH BE KEPT TO-NIGHT.

Condition Very Low and It Is Feared He May Die At Any Moment.

Edward S. Stokes was much weaker this afternoon. His condition was so low that Dr. John Billings gave orders for an extra careful watch on the patient to-night. It was feared he might die at any minute.

Dr. Billings was with Stokes at the McDunn home, No. 73 St. Nicholas avenue several times during the day. He left orders that he should be called at once if there was any change in Stokes's condition.

The unseasonable weather is believed to have had a bad effect on the patient. While suffering no apparent relief, Stokes has been growing weaker steadily. He lay all day in a semi-comatose state and took but little nourishment.

ROOSEVELT'S PASTOR TALKS

Alludes to President As the Right Man in Great Emergency.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 1.—The feature of the second session of the Federal Convention of the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip held in the East Liberty Presbyterian Church to-day was an address by Rev. John H. Schick, President Roosevelt's pastor, who spoke on "The Christian Man in Politics." He said: "Anarchy is the product of disbelieving discontent, and it may point its pistol at the breast of one prominent Christian and take him out of politics, but God will always have another Christian man in politics to take his place. And when this happens at the topmost pinnacle of American politics, the country, in the midst of its deepest sorrow, finds confidence in her institutions and is comforted because God has a Christian man in politics."

JEWELS STOLEN ON BRIDAL TRIP.

MRS. O'HARA MISSED THEM WHEN SHE GOT HOME.

Pullman Car Porter Johnson Arrested, but Denies Theft—Held in $1,000.

Charles O'Hara, in business at No. 75 Duane street, and living at No. 23 East Twenty-ninth street, appeared in the Yorkville Police Court this afternoon as complainant against John L. Johnson, colored, a porter employed by the Pullman Car Company, living at No. 23 East Twenty-ninth street. He charged Johnson with having abstracted jewelry to the value of $200 from his satchel while on the way to this city on a Pullman palace car. Johnson was held in $1,000 bail for trial.

Mr. O'Hara was on his way home from his wedding trip. He was accompanied to court to-day by his wife, a very handsome young woman. Mr. O'Hara said that on Oct. 23 he occupied a section in his car which was in Johnson's charge. At Yonkers he and his wife were awakened by Johnson and they arose, dressed and waited while their belongings were made up.

As the train was going into the tunnel Johnson was superintending the making up of some of the other berths. He and his wife had closed their satchels when they dressed. After leaving the train they proceeded at once to their home, and then his wife discovered that a diamond brooch, a pearl pin and a gold chain were missing from the satchels. They at once communicated with Capt. Titus, of the Detective Bureau, who assigned Detective Sergt. Dougherty to the case. Dougherty went to Johnson's home and made a search, but did not find the missing jewelry.

In court to-day Johnson was represented by a lawyer, who told Magistrate Meade that his client had been in the employ of the Palace Car Company for six years, and that he was a trusted employee. He had never been in any trouble before. He asked the Magistrate to discharge Johnson. Magistrate Meade, however, refused, saying there was sufficient evidence to warrant Johnson's being held and fixed bail at $1,000.

SCHAPIRO QUOTES SHAKESPEARE TO JUSTIFY ACT. "Take My Life When You Take Whereby I Live," He Wrote on Card.

Louis Schapiro, an Anarchist and a student, twenty-five years old, committed suicide to-day in his room at No. 106 Avenue B. He was a paper boxmaker, but had been out of work four months.

Schapiro was a Russian and very intelligent. He lived with Rudolph Miller and Miller's brother and two sisters, all of whom were at work to-day.

Moses Bach, a young man living on the second floor, below that of the Millers, saw Schapiro this afternoon, and Schapiro called to him to come upstairs. Bach went up and opening the door saw Schapiro writing on the floor.

Kahn, who sent to Bellevue Hospital. An ambulance came, but too late, as Schapiro was dead.

In Schapiro's room were many books and papers. On a table were two copies of an Anarchist paper entitled "Free Society."

On the back of a card was written: "I have committed suicide because I don't like to be enslaved when nothing is to be expected and while capitalists, nothing doing, possess everything." On the other card was written: "Take My Life When You Take Whereby I Live," says Shakespeare, being his follower, I take my life. L. SCHAPIRO.

On the other side of the card had been written: "I wonder if God is a Republican or a Democrat? Nobody can tell but that he is a monster."

The neighbors say that Schapiro kept to himself, and had a good reputation.
